

	0 - 3	4 - 6	7 - 9	10 - 12	13 - 15	16 - 18	19 - 21	22 - 24	25 - 27	28 - 30	31 - 33	33 - 36
Recruitment of manpower for the project & procurement of lab equipment
Establishment of baseline information data
Development of strategies for natural regeneration management of bio resources in the project sites.
Development of harvesting techniques/ methodologies for the wild bio resources available in the project sites.
Development of postharvest equipment/ technologies for the wild bio resources.
Development of appropriate drying technologies for the selected products.
Development processing technologies for various value added products and study of their packaging, shelf-life and storage.
Establishment of community based primary and secondary processing facilities.
Development of community based processing enterprises.
Development of skilled human power through community based models, training programs, workshop, and impact assessment of developed livelihood options on the rural mass in the project areas.												